Takaful is a mutual assistance scheme based on the spirit of brotherhood and solidarity where you and the other participants agree to assist each other financially if any one of you suffers a specific loss.

The main people under your certificate

This section explains who the main people under your certificate are, what rights they have, and how they are treated.

Who's covered under your certificate

Your certificate covers all the people named as persons covered on your current takaful schedule.

Persons covered

Depending on the plan chosen, these are the people who are covered by your certificate. Only the following people can be persons covered.

- You (the certificate owner).
- Your spouse. Your spouse can only be covered from the start of your certificate.
- Your children. You can cover up to two children under your certificate.

A person covered (other than the certificate owner) cannot make changes to your certificate.

Age requirements for persons covered

Age requirements apply for persons covered, which are shown in the following table.

Main people	Age when you can apply for cover	Age when cover ends
Certificate owner	Must be between 17 and 60 years old.	Cover ends at age 75.
Your spouse	Must be between 17 and 60 years old.	Cover ends at age 75.
Your children	Must be between 1 month old and 20 years old.	Cover ends at age 25.

Note: Age implies age at the next birthday.

Certificate owner (you)

You (the certificate owner) own the certificate, and your details are shown in the takaful schedule or endorsement.

You are the only person who may make changes to, or enforce any rights under, your certificate. If you make a change under your certificate, we will not check whether you have permission from anyone else to make that change.

You will also receive all the benefits under the certificate, except for:

- the contribution waiver benefit, which is a waiver of all contributions due after you were diagnosed with cancer

You must have a permissible takaful interest in the person covered

- when the certificate starts;
- at all times when the certificate is in place; and
- when a benefit is payable for a person covered.

You have a permissible takaful interest in the person covered if:

- the person covered is your spouse or your child;
- the person covered is less than 18 years old and your legal ward;
- the person covered is dependent (in whole or part) on you for maintenance or education when the certificate started.

If you do not have a permissible takaful interest

If we become aware that you do not have the required permissible takaful interest in a person covered we must follow the guidelines of Bank Negara Malaysia. This may mean that we may pay you an amount of money specified by Bank Negara Malaysia, and when we make that payment, your certificate will be deemed to be terminated.

No assignment of benefits

You cannot assign the benefits under your certificate to someone else as collateral for financing or a loan.

Change the certificate ownership due to lack of discretion and independent judgement

Your certificate ownership can be changed in the following situation.

- You are not able to exercise proper judgment regarding your certificate. We may require additional documentation from the courts or appropriate authorities if this happens.

Certificate ownership if you die

If you own an 'Individual plan', the certificate will terminate when you die or when you are diagnosed with cancer.

If you have sign-up to other plan, we will automatically transfer the ownership of the certificate when you die, according to the rules below. The certificate will continue to provide cover to the remaining persons covered.

The rules for certificate ownership when you die are different:

If you and your spouse are persons covered, and your children are also covered...

...and your spouse is alive	then	your spouse becomes the certificate owner.
-----------------------------	-------------	--

...and your spouse is not alive	then	the certificate continues without a certificate owner. It is known as an orphaned certificate .
---------------------------------	-------------	--

If only you are covered (you do not have a spouse or your spouse is not covered), but your children are covered...

then the certificate continues without a certificate owner. It is known as an orphaned certificate.

We will provide a certificate endorsement confirming the transfer of certificate ownership.

Orphaned certificates

If there is no certificate owner, but there are still persons covered, your FWD Care Direct certificate will keep providing cover for those persons covered. We will continue your certificate as an orphaned certificate.

This can happen if:

- both you and your spouse die (if you were both covered); or
- you die (and you do not have a spouse or your spouse is not covered); and
- your children are still persons covered.

When we will not pay any benefit

This certificate has certain exclusions, meaning situations where we won't pay a benefit. We list below the exclusions that apply to the benefits under your certificate.

We won't pay any cancer benefit if the signs or symptoms leading to diagnosis became apparent to the person covered:

- before or within 60 days after the certificate commencement date; or
- before or within 60 days after the certificate is reinstated (if the certificate was reinstated)

The above applies even if the signs or symptoms were not apparent to the person covered, if they would have been apparent to a reasonable person in the place of the person covered.

The cancer benefit will not be payable in respect of any condition, disease, illness or injury if there was any manifestation, diagnosis or treatment of such condition, disease, illness or injury before the commencement or reinstatement date.

We may also apply specific exclusions to your certificate when we offer to issue your certificate. If any specific exclusions apply, we will record the details in a certificate endorsement.

Unlawful acts	We will not pay any benefit under this certificate if the claim arises because you or a person covered willfully participated in an unlawful act, or unlawful failure to act.
War	We will not pay any benefit under this certificate if the claim is a result of an act of war (whether declared or not), coup, revolution, riot, or any similar event.

Filling-in your claim form

We will provide the forms that need to be filled-in to make a claim. Claims must be made on forms provided by us together with written supporting documents and any other information and documents that we ask for. We will not be able to process a claim until we receive this information and the filled-in claim form.

You should make every effort to send your claim to us within 6 months of the illness or death being claimed for, as it is difficult to assess claims after this period.

We check the age and gender before paying

We will not pay any benefits under your certificate until we have checked that the age and gender of the persons covered matches the information we have been given by you.

Costs of preparing your claim

We are not responsible for any of the costs of filling-in any form or getting any documents, such as death certificate, medical report or other certification. We will not pay for or reimburse you for any of these costs.

How we pay your claim

Currency

All amounts paid to us, or by us, will be paid in the currency shown in your takaful schedule. We will not pay any interest on any benefits under this certificate.

Who we pay

We pay the cancer benefit to the certificate owner. If the certificate is an Orphaned Certificate, we pay the benefit to:

- you, if you, your spouse (if your spouse is covered under your certificate) or children diagnosed with cancer; or
- your spouse (if your spouse is covered under your certificate) if you die

Your contribution

Your total contribution will be reduced accordingly if there is any claim from your certificate.

Your contributions

This section explains your contributions and what happens when you miss paying a contribution.

Paying your contribution

It is important to pay your contributions on time so your certificate stays active and your family continues to be covered. We outline below how you can pay your contributions and what happens if you don't pay.

Amount and due date

Your takaful schedule shows the amount you need to pay and the due date for your contribution payments.

Payment frequency options

You have the following payment frequency options.

- Yearly in one lump sum.
- By monthly instalments.

You can change your chosen method any time. See page 8 (changing your contribution payment method or frequency) for how to do this.

Payment method options

You can pay your contribution by setting up recurring payment through your debit card or credit card.

Contribution rates are not guaranteed

The contribution rates stated in your takaful schedule are not guaranteed. This means we can change the contribution rates by giving you 3 months' notice in writing. We will change this on your next certificate anniversary after the 3 months' notice period.

What happens if you don't pay on time

You contributions are due on the due date. We give you a 60-day grace period after the due date to pay your contribution. Your certificate will continue if you pay your overdue contribution within this 60-day period. If we do not receive your contribution within this period, we will cancel your certificate.

First contribution

Your first contribution is due on the commencement date.

Yearly, or monthly contributions

Due at the frequency you choose. You need to keep paying your contributions until the expiry date shown in the takaful schedule or until the certificate ends.

If you miss contribution payment

We give you a 60-day grace period after the due date to pay your contribution.

Your certificate ends from the date the contribution was due if we do not receive your contribution within this period.

If your certificate ends because you missed a contribution payment, you can apply to reinstate (restart) it. See page 11 (reinstating your certificate) for more details.

What we do with your contributions

We pay your contributions, and all other contributions we receive from other certificate owners (the participants), less the Wakalah fee, into our participants' risk fund.

The monies we pay into the participants' risk fund is considered to be tabarru' funds for the collective benefit of all participants. They are used to pay the benefits to claimants who are entitled to the benefits based on:

- the solidarity of brotherhood and cooperation among the participants; and
- subject to the terms and conditions within this certificate certificate.

We will manage the participants' risk fund in accordance with the Shariah. We will avoid investing the assets of the participants' risk fund in securities and assets prohibited by the Shariah.

Tabarru' is a donation for the purpose of takaful.

The participants' risk fund is managed according to the Shariah

We manage the participants' risk fund in accordance with the Shariah (Islamic law).

Any interpretations and decisions about the Shariah regarding your certificate will be made by our Shariah committee, and they are binding on us and you.

Wakalah fee

We manage all FWD Care Direct certificates on behalf of you and the other participants on the basis of Wakalah.

The contributions you pay for cover under your certificate is subject to a Wakalah fee. The exact percentage and amount of the Wakalah fee you pay is shown in your takaful schedule.

Wakalah is the appointment by one party of another to act on his behalf.

If the participants' risk fund is in surplus

At the end of each financial year, we calculate if there is any surplus in the participants' risk fund. If there is, we will first pay back any Qard amounts granted to the participants' risk fund for past deficits. We will then share the remaining surplus on the following basis.

- 50% is distributed to us as a Ju'alah (reward to the takaful operator).
- 50% is shared between the participants in the participants' risk fund.

What we do with your share of the surplus

We will reduce your next contribution by that amount.

Qard is an interest-free loan that we grant to the participants' risk fund if it is in deficit.

Ju'alah is the reward to the takaful operator for the good performance of the participants' risk fund it will be managing.

If the participants' risk fund is in deficit

If the participants' risk fund is in deficit, we will grant a Qard to remove the deficit. The Qard will be repaid from any future surplus amounts in the participants' risk fund.

We will be liable for any proven loss to the assets of the participants' risk fund if such loss is due to our mismanagement or negligence in managing the participants' risk fund.

Keeping it legal

In this section, we explain the important legal rights and obligations under your certificate.

Governing law

Your certificate is a takaful contract between you and us, and is governed by the laws of Malaysia, including any circulars, directives or guidelines given by Bank Negara Malaysia.

The laws of Malaysia will prevail if there is any conflict between them and your certificate.

Changes to your certificate to comply with the law

We have the power to make any changes to your certificate required to comply with the law. If we need to make a change, we will give you written notice.

Certificate language

The terms of the contract signed by you (in English) will form the basis of your takaful contract with us.

We rely on your information

Read all parts of your certificate to make sure they are correct

This takaful contract is based on the information you gave us during the application process. It is important that the information is correct, and you and the persons covered were truthful and accurate with all of the information you provided. This information helped us to decide if you and the persons covered were eligible for the certificate, and how much you need to pay.

You should let us know immediately if the information you or a person covered gave us during the application, was inaccurate, misleading, or exaggerated. You should also let us know immediately if the information you or a person covered gave us changes after your certificate is active.

You need to provide correct and complete information

You and the persons covered have:

- a duty of disclosure;
- a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation; and
- a duty to take reasonable care when answering our questions, or when you or the person covered confirm or amend any information you have given to us.

If you don't, we may dispute your claim, and your benefits under your certificate may be affected. In some cases we may cancel the certificate under the remedies provided in the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013. See page 21 (disputing payments) for more details.

If we were given the wrong age and gender

If we discover that we were given the wrong age or gender for you or another person covered, we will first work out the benefit amounts that your contributions would have bought if we had been given the correct age and gender when you applied.

We will then adjust the amount of the benefit to reflect this new benefit amount.

If you or the person covered were not eligible for takaful cover at their correct age and gender, we can declare that the contract is void. If we do, we will cancel your certificate and treat it as having never existed. We will refund any contribution paid without interest, after taking off any benefits we have paid.

If you need to change your information, or if you have any questions, please call 1 300 13 7988.

Disputing payments

We can dispute the validity of your certificate in certain circumstances outlined Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013. If we do, we can declare that the contract is void and treat it as having never existed. You will not be entitled to any certificate benefits.

If you or a person covered:

- did not provide accurate and truthful information;
- gave us misleading or exaggerated information; or
- made any misrepresentation;

we can dispute any claim within the first two years of the certificate.

The two years starts from the commencement date, and it restarts from the date your certificate is reinstated.

If you or a person covered:

- made a fraudulent statement on a material matter; or
- fraudulently suppressed or omitted a material fact;

within your application, we can dispute any payment at any time.

Material matters and facts

A material matter or material fact is one that would have caused us to:

- refuse to issue the certificate to you; or
- ask you to agree to special terms on your certificate before we issue the certificate;

if you or a person covered had told us about it.

What we will do

- If we dispute your certificate, we will review your certificate and decide if we have any reason to declare it void. If we do, we will cancel it and treat it as having never existed.
- We will refund the contributions paid without interest, after deducting any amount owed. If a benefit has been paid, we will recover that benefit.

Anti-Money Laundering, Anti-Terrorism Financing and Proceeds of Unlawful Activities Act 2001

We may need to freeze or seize any monies received or payable under your certificate:

- at the order of the relevant authorities; or
- if we discover, or if we have reasonable suspicion that, you are sanctioned under any competent authorities recognised by us, for money laundering activities or activities relating to financing terrorism; under the Anti-Money Laundering, Anti-Terrorism Financing and Proceeds of Unlawful Activities Act 2001.

If this happens, we will end your certificate and the cover under it immediately. We will deal with all contributions paid and all amounts payable under your certificate in any manner we deem fit, which may include handing it over to the relevant authorities.
